

TEMPLE KOL TIKVAH'S TREE OF LIFE

*...to honor a loved one
...to memorialize a beloved
...to mark a special occasion*

Order Online
or contact the temple office

The Tree of Life...

...provides donors with the unique opportunity to perpetually memorialize a loved one or honor a simcha. By participating in this Mitzvah we respectfully acknowledge every aspect of what life offers.

Recognizing a Simcha
sustains and celebrates life cycle events

Remembering a loved one honors the deceased's memory, legacy and life

Commemorate

Births • Weddings • Milestones • B'nei Mitzvahs • Engagements
Promotions • Anniversaries • Birthdays • Yahrzeits

Sample Inscriptions

In Memory of
Jesse Lane
1908 - 1990
by the Levine Family

In Honor of
Alyson & Tyler Strode
Married 13 September 2014

In Honor of
Jenn's Sweet Sixteen
August, 1988
Love, Your Family

In Blessed Memory of my Husband
Norman
November 1, 1911 - April 25, 1988
Ruth Pasternak

In Memory of my Grandparents
Anna and Joseph

In Honor of
Blaine Langberg's Bar Mitzvah
June 10, 2000
Love, Nana

Your purchase of leaves is an ongoing project and as our community flourishes, the tree will continue to grow.